Whistleblower Policy & Procedures

Policy:

GFRM encourages employees, volunteers and others related to the organization to report any violation of policy, procedure, or ethics; illegal activity; or other misconduct by employees, volunteers, or others related to the organization. An employee, board member, or volunteer who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

Procedures:

Reports can be made directly to the executive director, board chair or vice chair. To the extent that the activity or misconduct involves the executive director the report should be made directly to the board chair or vice chair.

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

The recipient of a complaint will notify the sender and acknowledge receipt of the reported violation or misconduct within five business days. All reports will be promptly investigated, and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted by the investigation.
